

I have read and understand the legal bylaws, the “goals and purposes”, and the land use policies of the Elvin H.O.M.E., Inc. and, with the signing of this commitment, do here-by pledge myself to doing my committed part to the best of my ability. To uphold these rules and procedures and to accomplish the “goals and purposes”.

I understand that the Elvin H.O.M.E., Inc. is not responsible for supplying me with food, shelter, or cash payment for services rendered under the terms of this commitment.

I realize that, as long as this commitment is valid, I do not have to pay Elvin H.O.M.E., Inc. communication, sponsorship, or facility use fees, and may have free use (within the bounds of the land use policies) of Elvin H.O.M.E., Inc. grounds and facilities on Lothlorien.

I agree to miss no more than two (2) Governing Council meetings per year and to participate in any non-Governing Council meetings required for the functioning of my committed position within the context of the greater whole.

I agree to abide by all Elvin H.O.M.E., Inc. rules, regulations, and policies while present on Lothlorien and/or while performing my committed duties.

I understand that, if I do not live up to the terms of this commitment, or fail to do the work required for the successful completion of my committed duties, that this commitment is automatically null and void. This commitment must come up for review at least once per year or when it is so requested by at least two (2) Elvin H.O.M.E., Inc eldar stewards, or stewards. If a review is called it must take place during a regularly scheduled Governing Council meeting.

I am entering this contract of my own free will.
